

Virginia's Blue Ridge Music Festival
Classical Music in the Mountains

"Mozart & Haydn in the Mountains"

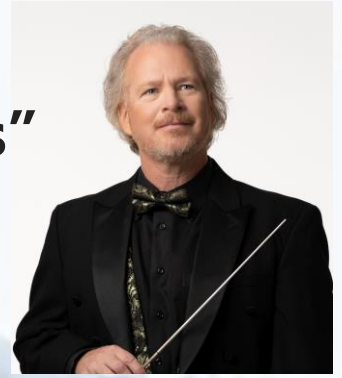

This special festival performance features one of the most beloved violin concertos by W.A. Mozart – his Concerto No 5 “Turkish” in A Major, played by the incomparable Akemi Takayama. Plus, a double concerto for two horns by Joseph Haydn, played on period natural horns by Abigail Pack and Rachel Niketopoulos as duo-soloists. Performances also of Mozart’s familiar 2nd horn concerto on natural horn with orchestra, and mountain-themed music by Jay Ungar and David Wiley. This is an exciting afternoon program at the Floyd Events Center-not to be missed!

Adults: $25.00 Students: $5.00

Sunday, June 16, 2024, at 3 pm
Celebration Hall in the Floyd Event Center
Tickets on Sale Now at VBRMF.org

Come Back on Monday for a FREE Concert – Blue Grass meets Classical Monday June 17, 2024, 6:30 pm

Featuring the Mike Mitchell Band, along with David Stewart Wiley, piano
Plus local area young music talent including Benjamin Smith, violin

David Stewart Wiley
Conductor & Festival
Virtuosi Orchestra

Abigail Pack

Rachel Niketopoulos

